

THE EVENING NEWS.

FIFTH YEAR—NO. 37

BENTON HARBOR, MICH., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1899.

TWO CENTS.

PLAINWELL GIANTS KNOW THEY'VE HAD A GAME

They Defeated Benton Harbor by a Score of 18 to 0.

Sound That Benton Harbor Was Not Niles Anyway.

Ended in Slugging Match and Benton Harbor Wasn't Second.

The great game of football between Benton Harbor and Plainwell was played off this afternoon on the East-Springs gridiron and the score was 18 to 0 in favor of the visitors. Nearly two hundred people shivered through the two and a half hours it took for the game and braved the rain that fell at intervals. They shouted themselves hoarse every time Benton Harbor gained an advantage and it was necessary for them to shout often. The high school girls kept cheering the team with their chosen yell and the who were high school girls years ago joined in the chorus. The Benton Harbor boys were much smaller than the average size of the Plainwell boys and they are also much younger. The visitors were a fine looking lot of boys and no one would call them boys. A news reporter asked Prof. Norwood of the Plainwell school, who took much interest in the game as the boys did themselves, if all the members of his team attended school. He replied yes, and when further questioned as to how long it took a Plainwell boy to graduate he replied in a voice which indicated he saw the point: "Oh, our school is a regular university."

It is a wonder the team wouldn't play at the universities instead of playing their class.

Benton Harbor's team was handicapped by the fact that Frank Busby, their best player, is sick and could not play.

The visitors made 12 points in the first half and 6 in the last half.

A full report of the game by halves will be published Monday.

Plainwell beat Niles last Saturday by a score of 46 to 0.

They found that Benton Harbor was not Niles.

The Plainwell boys started a slugging match in the second half and the Benton Harbor boys accepted the challenge and in this line the visitors won second place.

It is understood that a wager was offered the Plainwell boys that if they won the game today by a score of 50 to 0 they would receive a gift of $125.

BIG ELECTRIC LINE

May Absorb the Milwaukee, Benton Harbor & Columbus.

The Chicago Record of this morning says:

Surveys that are being made, along with the fact that the Milwaukee, Benton Harbor & Southeastern, now extending from Benton Harbor to Buchanan, had had its franchise and options on property extended another year, are being looked upon as indications that that railroad will soon extend into South Bend. Investigations into water power rights along the St. Joseph river and the movements of the officials of the Indiana railway company which owns the electric line connecting South Bend, Mishawaka, Elkhart and Goshen, lead to the general impression that they are back of the movement to run the M., B. H. & S. W. from Buchanan, and that it will be an electric line. The Indiana company has options to the very heart of South Bend and could give connection to South Bend with Buchanan, Benton Harbor, St. Joseph and a large number of smaller places.

NOT A CAPTAIN.

George W. Day Is Only a Plain Citizen.

In a letter too lengthy for publication George W. Day disclaims any right to the title of captain but he thanks Capt. Stewart, his friend, for bringing to the notice of the public his method for unloading the largest steamers on the lake in 20 minutes. In his letter Mr. Day says:

"As my friend Capt. Stewart in picturing the fast time boat overhauled the time that could be made and also the unloading time of my machinery a few minutes I will state that my machinery beats the world. The selfish city of Benton Harbor could just as well as not be manufacturing it and keeping all the idle wheels in motion and all the idle men at work but they have driven me from their city and to some other town where I can find men with brains enough and money to take hold of any proposition there is money in."

Mr. Day then goes on to complain that President Graham of the Graham & Morton company has persistently refused to insure this wonderful boat loader and he says that the fruit growers should demand its use as they could all get their fruit on the market first.

QUIT THE CAMP.

The Forty-Third Infantry, at Fort
Ethian Allen, Vermont, Loses
Many Men by Desertion.

New York, Nov. 11.—A special to the Press from Burlington, Vt., says: Officers of the Forty-third infantry, at Fort Ethan Allen, were perturbed Friday morning when they found that a large part of the regiment had taken "French leave." The men were paid off Thursday, and those contemplating desertion were waiting for the money. The officers admit that 120 privates and noncommissioned officers ran away Thursday night, and the number that deserted in the last four weeks will swell the list to 200. Probably 20 or 30 of the men will return and report for duty before the regiment starts for New York to embark on the transport Meade on Monday. Thursday night many of the soldiers visited the clothing stores in this city and bought civilian clothing. They went down to the wharf and discarded their uniforms, throwing them behind lumber piles and into the lake. Twelve uniforms were found Friday morning behind the railroad station, and 15 more were found on the wharf. No steps have been taken by Col. Murray to recapture the deserters. The regiment will start for the Philippines next week, as though nothing unusual had happened.

Are Wasting Their Efforts.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Postmaster General Smith has been notified by Director of Posts Valle, at Manila, that large numbers of circular letters from business firms in the states are being addressed to the Philippine provinces, and that under present conditions it is a waste of time and money to send mail for points outside of Manila, Cavite, Iloilo, Cebu, Zamboanga and Negros islands.

Celery Crop Damaged.

Wabash, Ind., Nov. 11.—Indiana celery growers say the celery crop of Indiana and Michigan is practically a failure. The plants were blighted and killed by the hot, dry weather of September. Indiana has many thousand acres devoted to the cultivation of celery. The same is true, Mr. Glaser says, of the Kalamazoo district in Michigan.

Mules for the Transvaal.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 11.—A special train of 12 cars of mules from the Kansas City stock yards started for New Orleans Friday, bound for the Transvaal. This is the second train load of mules purchased in this market by the English government. The order is a hurry one, and the train will try to make a record run.

Convicted of Murder.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 11.—William Winslow, aged 21, has been convicted of murder in the second degree for killing Edward Thim. The penalty is not less than ten years' imprisonment, from which it may be increased to a life term, in the court's discretion. The defense was insanity.

CAUGHT A SUCKER

Smooth Swindler From
St. Joseph

Does Up a South Bend
Youth.

Slept all Night in County Jail.

The city of St. Joseph is blessed with quite a number of shoe string gamblers and not a few of these gentlemen are the least bit particular how they make their living just so they get it. One of this latter brand is a man named Frank Brown who has a scheme which he has been successfully working for several months past and which has just come to the light of Sheriff E. H. Ferguson.

Brown went down to South Bend the other day and announced himself the agent for a big construction company wanting 200 men to go west and work on the construction of a new railway. He said the wages would be $1.75 a day and board so reasonable that a man could save lots of money. The result was that he secured five or six men who said they wanted to hire out. After Brown had caught the suckers he informed them that it would be necessary to pay him $5 for getting them the position but he would give them a railroad ticket to Chicago from St. Joseph and the construction company would pay their fare from Chicago to the place where they would go to work.

As luck would have it there was only one young man who had the required $5 and he paid it to Brown. When the two men arrived in St. Joseph Brown gave the young man a ticket to Chicago and when he got on the train to go to Chicago he showed the ticket to the conductor and that gentleman told him the ticket was no good as it was an 1898 ticket. The young man stepped off the train and chased up Brown and told him he wanted his $5 back and Brown promptly told him to go to a hot place. The young man did not have a cent in his pocket and was forced to go to Sheriff Ferguson and state his case. He slept all night in the county jail and this morning Prosecuting Attorney Valentine was visited, but as Brown made the contract in Indiana he was out of the reach of the Michigan laws. The young man, whose name is Daniel Greenwalt, left his watch and chain with the sheriff in return for $3 which he borrowed to get home on and he will swear out a warrant for the arrest of Brown as soon as he gets in South Bend.

Sheriff Ferguson says that this is not the first swindling act Brown has committed and that he ought to be in jail on general principles.

Postmasters to the Number of 14,604 Appointed During the Year.

STATISTICS OF THE SERVICE.

United States Post Offices Have Reached the Enormous Total of 75,000—Report of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Fourth Assistant Postmaster General John L. Bristow, in his annual report, announces that during the past fiscal year 14,604 postmasters were appointed, 13,523 being fourth-class postmasters and the remainder presidential, concerning the policy of removals, the report says:

"The policy of former administrations of removing fourth-class postmasters for political reasons, regardless of length of service, resulted in the changing of postmasters in all the important fourth-class offices early in those administrations. The four years term of the great majority of fourth-class postmasters, therefore, expired early in this administration, which accounts for the greatly decreased number of appointments made during the fiscal year as compared with the preceding one. Special attention to disciplinary measures and the general improvement of the service has therefore been permitted. There were 2,555 post offices established in 1898, 1,565 discontinued. At the close of the year, the total number of post offices in the country was 75,000. The department has discontinued a number of private post offices, which it has been advised were conducted for the sole benefit of some private institution, not only depriving the government of its legitimate revenues, but giving undue advantage over competing firms in postal facilities. Extension of rural free delivery necessitated discontinuing so post offices, applications to restore a number of which are now pending.

About 1,000 more post offices were inspected than in any previous year. Registered mail last averaged one piece in every 25,000 handled. There were 1,670 postal arrests during the year, including 119 postmasters, 31 assistant postmasters, 41 post office clerks, 11 railway postal clerks, 31 letter carriers and 34 post office burglars. Of all these, 629 were convicted and 929 cases are still pending in the courts. The report says the practicability of transporting the mails over the proposed all-American route to the Yukon in Alaska is a problem yet to be determined, and a report inspection found so few settlers in the interior country that only one post office was established.

Among the recommendations are for authority for inspectors to take out search warrants whenever necessary; for payment of expenses of various authorities in arrest and detention of post office prisoners; an appropriation for constructing inspectors look-outs in offices wherever deemed necessary; an amendment to the interstate commerce law to prohibit telegraph and express companies or employees from abetting in green goods swindles, lotteries or similar schemes; legislation prohibiting loose punching of circulars and other small mail matter, and providing a larger newspaper wrapper than is now issued.

Natural Gas Giving Out.

Kykoma, Ind., Nov. 11.—Natural gas is rapidly falling in the north part of the Indiana field. The Dietrich syndicate has given notice that it will abandon its plants in the smaller towns. Five to 12 in this county are left to freeze, and nearly 2,000 families will eat cold victuals and shiver over fireless stoves. Coal cannot be had at any price, and there is no wood in the market. The syndicate controls the gas plants in over 20 cities and towns in various parts of the state. In Indianapolis the syndicate has shut off all factories and hotels as well as public buildings.

Acquitted.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—After a trial lasting three weeks Harry Hammond, a tailor, was acquitted of the charge of attempting to murder John T. Shayne, a prominent merchant of this city. Last spring Hammond shot Shayne in the cafe of the Auditorium Annex, where Shayne was at lunch with Mrs. Hammond, the divorced wife of the tailor. Much evidence was introduced in the trial to show that Shayne had rendered Hammond's home unpleasant.

THE MITTAN CASE.

Arguments On at Niles Before Judge Coolidge.

Niles Sun, Friday: The arguments in the case of Delbert E. Mittan vs the American express company to recover $360 now in chancery were heard by Judge O. W. Coolidge in his office here today. Col. Edward Bacon appeared for the express company and Hon. E. L. Hamilton and Attorney George E. Lamborn represented Mr. Mittan.

The details of the case are too familiar to Niles citizens to warrant very great rehearsal. On November 18, 1896, E. F. Woodcock, then cashier of the Citizens' National bank, placed a package containing $2,000 in the American express office here for shipment to the Bankers' National bank of Chicago. This package was given Agent Walter H. Chambers shortly after 1 o'clock of the afternoon of that day. Between 1 and 3 o'clock the package mysteriously disappeared, and a few days later Delbert E. Mittan, then employed by the express company, was arrested, charged with stealing the money. After an exciting trial in the circuit court at St. Joseph the jury acquitted the accused on the third ballot.

Nearly $1,000 had been found in Mittan's possession, $640 being in charge of his finance, Miss Mattie Edwards, who was romantically married to Mittan in the court room immediately after the jury had declared him a free man. A little over $300 was turned over to Mittan there, but the $640, held by Under-Sheriff B. F. Earl was claimed both by Mittan and the express company. Mr. Earl placed the money in chancery and filed a bill of interpleader and the present legal fight is the result.

The case has been hanging fire for over two years, and testimony has been taken week after week. The express company claims to have introduced new testimony, tending to show that the money belongs to them, while Mr. Mittan and his attorneys are just as sanguine as ever that they will prove their right to the cash.

MICHIGAN SUGAR O. K.

Alleged the Trust Is Trying to "Kill" It.

Lansing, Nov. 11.—It is charged that the sugar trust is at the bottom of a widespread agitation which is working to convince the public that sugar now being manufactured in this state from beets grown in Michigan is not as valuable for general consumption as so-called cane sugar, manufactured elsewhere. Dr. Kedzie, professor of chemistry at the agricultural college and State Analyst Doolittle have analyzed the Michigan product and pronounce it equal to any sugar manufactured, regardless of the substance from which the latter is taken.

MICHIGAN.

Col. Bliss of Saginaw is in the race for the nomination for governor on the republican ticket.

Attorney General Oren gave an opinion to Secretary Reiger of Barbers' commission, in which he holds that all persons shall be subject to examination who have not been engaged in the business of a barber in this state within only for two years prior to the law taking effect.

A jury has been impaneled in the Laneer circuit court to determine whether a newspaper is a nuisance. This is one of the several Cross Roads Weekly cases in which 26 Metamora citizens are sued for $10,000 damages. It is alleged that these 26 citizens circulated a petition to that effect and later presented it to the Metamora common council.

It is claimed that the fastest small boat in Michigan waters will be launched this morning by the Sintz gas engine company at their docks. A trial trip to Ottawa Beach will be made. She is 50 feet long and contains the best of equipment, the engines being started simply by opening a valve and without turning a crank, compressed air being substituted. The little craft is built for a speed of 20 miles an hour, and is expected to make 17 miles, which will beat anything on the Lakes—Grand Rapids Democrat.

The prison authorities at Jackson and the pardon board are in a quandary to know what to do with Harry W. Smith, 13-year old lad sent from Benton Harbor last spring for fifteen years for statutory criminal assault. The attorney general says the board has authority to transfer the lad to Ionia reformatory, but cannot commute his sentence to a term at Industrial school for boys.

Calkins, Vernon, $8 to $12; Friedrich Kritzman, Argyle, $8 to $10; Peter Pace, Harbor Springs, $10 to $12; Gordon A. Sayre, Mason, $16 to $17; Myron Bruce, Mill Brook, $6 to $10. The Twin City Floral Co. will exhibit a large collection of fine chrysanthemums, there will also be on exhibition some rare varieties from Indiana.

Hull and Anna Gridley, and choice confections will be served. During the evening Dutch Charlie and Katrina will appear in costume and sing most charmingly. The admission fee will be only 10 cents and no one can afford to stay away.

Come early and secure first choice of the many articles for sale in the novelty and domestic booths at the chrysanthemum fair next Wednesday afternoon and evening.

LECTURE IS DRAMATIC.

Bishop Fowler on "Great Deeds of Great Men."

The Utica Sunday Tribune says of the lecture which Bishop Fowler will deliver here in the M. E. course November 24: "Great Deeds of Great Men" was the subject of Bishop Fowler's lecture. The lecture was so forceful so vivid, so unique that only those who were moved by the orator's matchless eloquence can form any adequate conception of the power of the lecturer or the merits of his lecture. Bishop Fowler is very dramatic, and his great theme may be characterized as brilliant in thought, faultless in composition, polished in style, wonderful in delivery and graphic in its delineations.

Don't fail to see Dutch Charlie and Katrina at the chrysanthemum fair next Wednesday evening. They will be dressed in costume, wooden shoes, etc., and will sing a song which alone will be worth the price of admission.

A SUNDAY INCIDENT.

It Interrupted Preparations for Church and Caused Anxiety in a Cincinnati Household.

"What's the matter? What's the matter?" was repeated by the roomers in a select boarding place in Cincinnati, as some excitement became apparent in the yard. It was Sunday morning, says the Commercial Tribune, and the men appeared without coats and collars and the women still had their "frizzes" done up and their toilets only half complete for church services. The mistress was frantic and stood saying: "Oh, that poor dog! That poor dog! He's got the lockjaw!" Thereupon the little daughter ran into the house screaming and hid under the bed, where she stayed and cried, and all the boarders gathered sympathetically around a handsome Scotch collie, who stood with his mouth wide open, unable to close it, while he held up a sore foot. The mistress of the mansion flew to the telephone and beseeched the family doctor to tell her what to do for the dog. He told her to put the sore foot in as hot water as the dog would stand, give him hot broth and if he was not better the next day he'd call over and see Mr. Doggie.

The hot water bath was prepared and the hot broth administered, the dog taking very kindly to both, looking on with great wide-spread eyes. The men said: "Egad! It's too bad! Such a fine fellow, too!" and the women forgot all about church services, patting the shaggy sufferer most tenderly.

This went on for over an hour, when one of the women scooped down to look into the dog's mouth. She exclaimed: "Why, there's something in the back there, sticking up and down between the teeth!" The men took turns and agreed that it looked like a bone, but not one ventured to put his hand in the open mouth to remove it. At last the little woman thrust her slender hand down the dog's mouth and gently, but firmly, loosened a long bone which had become wedged between the dog's teeth, thereby preventing him closing his mouth. Mr. Doggie showed his appreciation by madly capering around the astonished group, too much sold to say anything more than: "Well, I never!"

Did You Ever Run a Fanning Mill?

If so, you know that all the good, plump wheat comes out of the front of the mill and only the shrunken and puckered kernels go through the sieve into the chaffbox and are blown over the tail of the mill into the chaff. We never lost a good, plump customer in our life. We have heard of such a thing as once in a great while one going into the chaffbox or into the chaff but we always doubt it and never knew of a case.

ACCORDING to the Benton Harbor

THE Benton Harbor Times this week
prints a very conservative and kind article in which it only uses the words
"lies" and "misstatements" a few times and only attacks two citizens of the place. The Times is certainly improving and should be encouraged in its approach toward respectability.

A Close-Fisted Father.
Mr. Kuhn was thrifty in money matters, and cared little for his own personal appearance. He had worn the same old shabby overcoat until his sons were ashamed of him and tried to induce him
to buy a new one.
"Oh, no," the old gentleman would always say, "I would rather have the $10
that it would cost."

One day the sons determined that he should wear a new coat, and, believing that if he could get one at a good bargain he would buy it, arranged with a tailor to sell him a $10 coat for $7.50, they to pay the difference. They then went home and told their father what a bargain it would be to buy it. So the father went and looked at it, and after beating the tailor down to six dollars took it and started for home.
But when he reached the door he had no coat with him.
"Didn't you buy the coat, father?"
"Yes; got it for six dollars," replied
the old man.
"Where is it?"
"Oh! I was showing it to a friend on the street car, and when he offered me
eight dollars for it I let him have it."—

LOCAL BREVITIES

LIEUT. Sweet received three cases rifles for the naval militia this morning.

GRAND carnival ball this evening. This will be the best part of the entire carnival.

A YOUNG man working for Charles Stowe near Riverside, while attending the carnival yesterday was relieved of $10.

MERCHANTS are beginning to agitate early closing. The trial of the system for the past two years has been both satisfactory and profitable.

WORK on the new brick building of William Hoodless, Territorial street, is progressing rapidly and Mr. Hoodless will soon move to his new location.

ONE of the large show windows of Ender's & Young were broken in last night during the carnival excitement. It will cost considerable to replace the glass.

MISS Nora Gowdy, a student of the Benton Harbor college, who lives in St. Joseph, was relieved of her gold watch while coming from the college last Wednesday.

JOHN Blaksley who ten years ago moved to Bangor has moved back to Millburg and is living in the Adams house. Mr. Blaksley lost his second wife about two months ago.

PHOTOGRAPHER Lacy took a fine picture yesterday of the exterior of the Enterprise Mercantile company's store. Mr. Warren is receiving many compliments on his fine display.

MRS. A. D. Northrup had the misfortune to fall down the flight of stairs leading to the cellar of her home night before last, but fortunately outside of a few bruises she was uninjured.

JESSE Hall while shooting off day rockets this morning met with an explosion which badly burned his face and neck, and just barely escaped putting out his eyes. He was taken to Dr. Herring's office where his wounds were dressed.

BUTZBACH & Kidd this morning received a consignment of celery raised at Hinchman on the M., B. H. & C., in this county. It is the finest celery that they have sold this year and they have had the best of the crop from Kalamazoo, Decatur and every other celery center.

THERE were two prizes for the best appearing body of men in the parade last Wednesday. The naval reserves received first prize and the Modern Woodmen second prize. Many compliments were heard for the Woodmen and it was thought by some that they would get first prize.

MR. Benson, of Detroit, representing the Fidelity & Casualty company of New York, is in the city today. This company do a large business insuring steam boilers and S. A. Bailey of this city is their agent. Mr. Benson is inspecting the 12 boilers of the Wolverine Sugar company.

DR. Freemyer writes from Chicago that he is having a great time at the special course of lectures at the Dunham medical college, and that he has watched the operations of Prof. Senn and other noted surgeons and will not take a back seat for anyone but Prof. Pratt. He writes that he has performed three operations before the class and has received many compliments.

The exhibition game of football between the Benton Harbor high school team and the Bangor team yesterday afternoon was witnessed by two or three thousand people. The teams were quite evenly matched though it was quite evident that the local team were in better form than their opponents. The Benton Harbor boys made six points in the first half and the Bangor boys six in the last half. It is claimed that the understanding was that the game was to be a tie.

THE Berrien Springs correspondent of the Banner-Register gives the following particulars of an experience of a former Benton Harbor man: F. E. Spaulding, who is buying and packing apples at this place, hired a livery rig of Morris & Simpson, Tuesday, and drove in the country a few miles to the Kinney farm. He hitched the horse near some bee hives. Soon one of the hives of bees swarmed and lighted upon the horse's head, stinging it so severely that a veterinary surgeon was called from Buchanan, but the horse died soon after. The horse had a special value as it was one of a well-matched team.

CHRIS Millar, the manager of the fistic carnival, which met with so much praise here, wishes to thank the Graham & Morton company, the members of the carnival committee and the business men who gave him assistance. Although he ran the two shows at a big loss he has confidence in the Benton Harbor public and has taken out a state charter for the Benton Harbor athletic association. When the opera house is completed he expects to give an entertainment here this winter and next summer give the best boxing exhibition ever seen anywhere.

F. M. VAN Horn, who recently resigned his position with the Phoenix, having so little to do has been racking his brain over the carnival to find out if possible if there were any good results from it. He has concluded that civilization and Christianity is advancing, and that Benton Harbor could not demonstrate the fact more clearly than she has done by turning the streets over to the children and others for a playground for three or four days. Nothing has been done he says by the republican party, either great or small, that meets with his approval, except the carnival of fun. In this it has his hearty approval.

Almost Absolute Country's Product.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 6.—The Free Press says: The National Salt company, of New Jersey, capitalized at $12,000,000, has secured control of the salt industry of this state, and now has almost absolute control of the salt product of the entire country. Seventy per cent. of the Michigan salt manufacturers belonged to the Michigan Salt association, the output of which the trust is purchasing outright. The plants which did not belong to the association were dealt with separately, and are being leased by the trust for a period of five years. These blocks throughout the state which it is not necessary to operate are being closed temporarily, perhaps permanently. The "outside" plants still retain the right to manufacture what is called "patent medicine" salt, viz.: A high grade table product, with which the trust is not interested. It is considered likely that the National Salt company will not place a manager in this state, but will handle the product directly through its agents. Nothing is known of the prices paid by the combination for the Michigan plants.

The latter was also killed, both men firing simultaneously. The tragedy was the result of a quarrel over the removal of a woodshed belonging to young Bowles. Bowles' family was noted for its fighting record. John Bowles had already killed two men. He was a man of considerable wealth.

Liberia in Danger.

Berlin, Oct. 6.—The Deutscher Colonial Zeitung in an editorial on Liberia says: Liberia must necessarily soon cease to exist. France and England are both indulging in machinations to annex the country. Liberia is of the greatest value to Germany, especially the Cameroons. Two-thirds of the Liberia firms are Germans, and Germany must therefore see that she gets a share of the territory or the whole.

LOCAL BREVITIES

BORN to Mr. and Mrs. Elias Fuller, 100 Territorial street, a boy.

THE Hopper-Morgan company yesterday shipped three car loads of tablets to St. Paul, Minn.

THE crowd of people that thronged Burridge's store this morning made it almost impossible for the salesman to make a sale.

ONE of the street cars jumped the track on the viaduct last evening and a number of people became tired of waiting and walked into town.

E. A. GRAHAM expects to start the building of his new river boat in a few weeks. He is now busily engaged in buying the timber to be used in the new steamer.

THIS is supposed to be the dull season with the Excelsior Mineral bath house but almost every day letters from all parts of the country are received by Manager Smith. There are several out of town people taking the bath now.

NEXT week is the week of prayer for young men observed by all the Young Men's Christian Associations of the country. A twenty minutes service will be held each evening in the rooms here at 7:30, except on Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

A MOTHERS' meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Bass, Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Subject, "Obedience." An earnest invitation is extended to all interested to be present. Mrs. Edgar will also present the Florence Crittenton work.

THE work on the new Chicago & West Michigan freight house was started yesterday with a vim. Six carpenters from Grand Rapids arrived and more will be here Monday. It is the intention to have the work completed before snow flies.

THE Lady Mamebees are hustling the sale of tickets for the comedy "Our Boys" and a good crowd is expected. The play is a delightful English comedy and full of fun from start to finish. The date of the entertainment has been changed from the 17th to the 20th.

WILL H. HICKEY, the new St. Joseph jeweler, places an advertisement in THE NEWS today and calls attention to his fine line of clocks, watches and diamonds. Mr. Hickey is an up-to-date merchant and carries an up-to-date stock of goods. He makes a specialty of fine diamonds and has a display that will dazzle your eyes.

THE city board of health met last night and all the members were highly elated with the work accomplished during the smallpox scare. It was the opinion of the board that all school children would have to be vaccinated before they could attend school. The board evidently believes in the old saying that "An ounce of preventative is worth a pound of cure."

Mrs. Ida Stuart Edgar, representing the Florence Crittenton Beniah Home of Chicago, is desirous of meeting all the ladies of Benton Harbor and vicinity tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Baptist church, where it is desirable that a circle of ladies be organized to co-operate in the uplifting of the outcast and the prevention of the social evils in the home and community. Girls under fourteen not invited. All others urged to be present.

IT was owing to the prompt action of Harvey Forbes, who was on board the City of Chicago when Mrs. William Russell fell into the canal yesterday that her life was saved. When Mr. Forbes went aboard the boat he noticed a row boat tied near one of the wheels and when the cry was given that someone was overboard Mr. Forbes at once secured the row boat and with the assistance of Capt. W. A. Boswell rescued Mrs. Russell from what in a few seconds would have been certain death. Mrs. Russell has not fully recovered from the effects of her fall yet.

Their Gender.

For the third time she had intimated that she thought she ought to have that bonnet, and for the third time he had said her "nay." Then there was a brief silence, after which she asked:

"'Facts' is a neuter noun, is it not?"

"It is," he replied.

"It ought to be masculine," she asserted.

"Why?" he inquired.

"Because facts are stubborn things." —Chicago Post.

Killed by Kindness.

A genuine case of killing by kindness has taken place in Shoreditch. Sarah Black, a child about five years old, daughter of a laborer, was exceedingly popular in the locality, and continually receiving gifts of nuts and sweets. After eating a hearty meal of stewed eels, meat pie and kippers, she was rewarded with a quantity of monkey nuts and plums; and this diet brought on indigestion, from which she expired.—London Telegraph.

NO EFFECT WITHOUT A CAUSE.

This is true, yet for many ages no one could account for the mysterious and excruciating pains that, seemingly without sufficient cause, tortured the hapless sufferer, and oftentimes twisted his limbs out of all semblance to humanity.

Science, however, has at length solved this problem, and has proclaimed that rheumatism, in all its varied phases, is due to uric acid in the blood.

Hence, when one is afflicted with rheumatism he knows there is too much acid in his blood.

How does this happen. It must be the blood's purifiers, the liver, and especially the kidneys, are out of order and do not properly perform their functions.

But how can they be restored to their normal healthy state? Hundreds of thousands of grateful, and now healthy, people will endorse the answer:

Use Warner's Safe Cure, which will check an excess of acid, dissolve the acid deposit, and produce a normal and healthy condition of the kidneys and liver, and then, the cause being removed, the rheumatism will quickly disappear.

Vaccination in Tringganu.

The headman of one of the coast mukims in Tringganu is a firm believer in the efficacy of vaccination. He has ordered all his "anak buah" to undergo the ordeal, the place of the physician's knife being taken by a rusty perang. Every patient pays to the penguah one dollar, two fowls and three gautangs of rice, with a further charge of two more gautangs of rice and another brace of fowls if the inoculation is successful. —Malay Mail.

DISORDER SALE

to New York

Owing to the tremendous trade we did last week we found our stock in a terrible disorder. This, however, was exactly what we wanted as it gives us a chance for a great sale, a chance which evidently all our merchants are looking for. This is no joke but a bona fide sale. We have them every day but Sunday. We don't want to go out of business, we don't care to dissolve, we can't have a fire sale and we don't buy enough goods to have all the leading manufacturers call upon us. Therefore we close our burlesque and quote you a few facts. We have always claimed that we sell our goods as cheap every day as others do on sale days.

Compare These Every Day Prices with Sale Prices of our Competitors

<h3>Dress Goods</h3> 50 pieces 35c, 50c and 60c goods, at 20c and 23c A 56 inch homespun for 90c. Others ask $1 for a 70-inch one. Venetians at 85c, others ask $1. Marlboros at 90c, you can't buy them elsewhere. See our Golf Suitings and Plaids. We have more black goods than all our competitors combined.	<h3>Silks</h3> WE SHINE HERE! All colored taffetas, 75c. Black taffetas, 75c and $1, 27 inches wide. Skinner satin, a $2 quality at $1.25.	<h3>Linen Dept.</h3> Everyone knows of Pound's famous linens. Well we are always here with the goods. Notice these prices: 62 inch bleach table damask, our regular price, 35c 62 inch bleach table damask, our regular price, 42c 72 inch bleach table damask, our regular price, 60c Napkins to match. 54 inch heavy cream, our regular price, 23c.
<h3>Cloaks and Furs</h3> No other line compares with ours in jackets. Look around before you buy and we will quote you some prices. FURS—Well, we should think so. We can show you more medium priced furs than any store in town. We have them from $1.75 to $28.	<h3>Kid Gloves</h3> 3-button clas-p, (our regular price) $1.00.	<h3>Underwear</h3> 1 case ladies' fine fleece ribbed, worth 35c, at 23c as we have advertised for one month. 1 case ladies' fleece ribbed, worth 40c, at 35c. 1 case men's heavy fleece, worth 60c, at 44c. 1 case boys' heavy fleece, worth 40c, at 25c.
<h3>Silkalene</h3> Our regular price, 10c.	<h3>Outing Flannel</h3> 58 pieces of an excellent quality, worth at least 9c, until it is gone at 6c.	<h3>Blankets</h3> 10-4 cotton blankets, our regular price, 48c. Others and better ones up to $4.25.
<h3>Petticoats</h3> See that wonder at $1.00. We have better ones up to $3.50. If you want any of these goods buy them now.

Now compare our lists with others who are giving stuff away. Would you rather trade with people who are giving you honest values 365 days in the year or with those who 3 or 4 times on special sales? We can't be lost as our prices and goods are right. We have all the leading manufacturers visit us, but we do visit all of them, which is quite an advantage. We are here to do business fair and square. When you expect to purchase a chance and we will show you more for your money than any other store in town.

WINE OF CARDUI
HEALTHY OLD AGE
I am 49 years old and have been suffering with Change of Life. I had flooding spells so bad that none thought I could live. My husband got me Wine of Cardui and it saved my life. I am like another person since taking it.
MRS. E. B. TOWNSEND.

Wine of Cardui
It is the devout wish of nearly all people to live to a ripe old age.
None of us want to die young. This universal desire can be realized if care be taken of the health in early and middle life. A little precaution then will add many years to our existence. Death can be kept away a long time. Happy, healthy old age will be the lot of the woman who promptly takes the female child safely over the dividing line between girlhood and womanhood. As a wise she needs it to help her through the trials of pregnancy and childbearing with as little discomfort as possible. At the Change of Life it will help her over the dangerous place that appears in her pathway between 40 and 50. Then will come many years of truly blissful existence. She will grow old slowly and gracefully. To the last she will preserve that charm and beauty which are always characteristic of perfectly healthy grandmothers.
It is for women alone to decide whether they will be healthy or sick. The remedy for their sickness is close at hand.

"HERE we are at the old willow. What do you say to coming to anchor for a bit?" he remarked, bringing the Canadian close in to the bank.

"That is just what one finds so impossible in life—coming to anchor, I mean," she said, dabbling her left hand in the water.

"Look here, Di," he jerked out, presently,
"what is the good of beating about the bush?
There's something wrong, and you are worrying yourself about it, and I am going to make you tell me everything. You used to tell me everything once, Di, without invitation," he added, with an attempt at rail-lery that was chiefly pathetic.

"Don't be a duffer, Hugh," she observed.
"May I not be sentimental now and then without being forced to explain that I mean nothing at all? Now, will you please amuse me? It is a shame to waste an afternoon like this."

"Of course it is," he echoed. "You see,
dear, all the gods and the fairest of mortals —meaning your delightful self—seem to be conspiring for my happiness; when the gods behave in this odd kind of way we are told to distrust them. First of all, I have you—have had you quite fast, since the days when I robbed orchards, and you, like a second Eve, ate the apples; then I have secured two firsts and a reasonable chance of a fellowship; lastly, a most commendable maiden ship; and, a most commendable maiden ship that I wish to die and endow me with the wealth that perishes. It is too much, you know, Di, not a doubt of it; the stagey thing to happen is for me to lose you, and thereby make dust and ashes of all my other possessions."

"Do you know," he recommenced presently, "I can't for the life of me, help feeling sentimental, and gray, and awfully sorry for myself, when I think Cambridge is over and done with. Look at that bit of Clare, there, gazing out upon King's with such a genial eye; then there is a willow above us, and the bridge from which one used to listen to the nightingales, and—and the Fen sunsets one has seen, and the cheery life. All gone, Di, forever and forever."

"All gone," she echoed in a voice that was almost tragic by comparison with the halfflippancy of his.

"Staying up here indefinitely as a don is not the same thing," he went on. "The glamour wears thin, and one slips into formula in place of feelings, and acquires un-nanny views of women. You have met Roberts often lately, haven't you? He is only just 30, and yet he has settled into his groove as if he were 110. As a coach he is marvelous, and I have every admiration for the way in which he pulled me through, but—but—I should have liked to exhibit the genuine Roberts to you, Di; you would have been edified, I think. I never met a man who could so effectually turn his blind eye
to the good qualities of women."

"Ah," murmured the girl. "Let us go down the river again," she said, after a pause. "I have something to say to you, Hugh, and it will be easier if we are in motion."

"I have often wondered what would happen to Roberts if he met his destiny written large," he mused audibly. "It would knock him clean out of time, I fancy, should he lose. That is the worst of these men who go on in smiling indifference to amatory dangers: they are puffed up with the horrid jerk. Don't you think infant vaccination with love lymph is to be advocated? You don't take it half as badly in that case."

"Oh, Hugh, why will you be so—so frivolous?" pleaded the girl, something between amusement and deprecation in her voice.

"Can't help it, Di, for the life of me; I was born so, you know."

"I am going to tell you a story, Hugh," she went on with more composure, "and you shall give me your verdict on it. Don't stop; I can't hear to remain still. The story is about a woman and a man of whom the woman was very fond—so fond that she had promised, almost before she grew up, that she would marry him. She did not know that love meant something else, until—until she came up to Cambridge one May week.
Hugh, please don't look at me in that way;
it is only a story. Well, she met some one very often, more often than she had a right to do, during that week; she did not realize the end to which they were drifting—she was merely interested in drawing a grave, book-hardened man out of his shell; being rather willful, she could not be confronted with a solid wall of ice and not wish to thaw
it."

"The man's face was the color of damp
parliament. 'Go on,' he said as she halted in the telling."

"She succeeded, Hugh. It all came about on the night of a certain college ball, beneath an old willow—the same under which we anchored not long ago. The wall of ice melted suddenly en masse, and the rush of water carried both of them away. It was then that the woman learned the added element which converted fondness into love; it was then that she lost sight of honor and allowed the man to kiss her."

"Good God,"

"She had not dreamed that Hugh would take it like this. Sorry, very sorry, she expected him to be, but not anguished. She had grown up with him, and tragically always seems out of place with people who have become devoted into our lives by common-places."

"Hugh, you must not think I gave you up," she said, with the silly struggle of a sheep that sees the slaughter house door before it. "I told him almost at once that I was bound to you, and I shall not break my promise. Only I had to confess, because it would not have been right to conceal it from you."

"They were close in to the left bank of the river, and a step was audible on the pathway. Both looked up. Both turned their eyes from the bank to each other, and a light broke in on Hugh."

"That's Roberts, the man who pulled me through so well," he observed, chaotically.
"Would you like to land, Di?"

"No, no!" she cried.

But the canoe was already brought to, and he had leaped on shore. Mechanically she took the hand he held out to her; mechanically she responded to the confused greeting of Eustace Roberts, classical coach and father of unnumbered firsts. One among the last-born of his offspring seemed to be somewhat intoxicated this afternoon—perhaps the heat had been too much for him.

"You're a decent old sort, Roberts," he remarked, hilariously slapping his precursor
on the back, "and I—congratulate you.
Should never have expected it. Sly dogs, you cynical beggars. Don't mind me—enjoy this kind of thing, you know. Good-by, good-by;
I must be off. No good missing Hall, you see,
for the sake of being de trop."

Before they could stop him he was well out in the middle of the river and paddling hard in the direction of King's.

"Poor chap!" muttered Roberts.

"Poor chap!" said the girl. "Is that all you can find to say appropriate to the occasion?"

"Yes; the rest is away behind, shut up beyond the reach of words," he responded,
gravely.—Chicago Herald.
